Quickly Wears Away

People sometimes dread to enter a bank; this is simply because they are not familiar with the customs of business. But this feeling of embarrassment quickly wears away with those who deal with this bank; at least we try to have it so. We want every customer to feel free and easy. . . .

Wants of the Ladies

We give particular attention to the business wants of the ladies; also the needs of children, and others with whom business is not a daily habit. . . .
We want all to feel at home when they enter our bank. . . .

The big camp meeting which was in progress for ten days at a point on the Quiltman road a short distance out of town came to an end Sunday night last. The meeting was a very successful one, we understand.

Just received at W. R. Thurston's a complete line of gentlemen's furnishing goods at extremely low prices.

Superintendent Hughes and family lance to the church now remains.

The Methodist church at Rocky Spring is in a flourishing condition. The church has a large membership and the congregation is now preparing to make extensive alterations and repairs upon the church building. Frazier Clayton will ornament the building with several coats of paint.

The truth of the saying that "all signs fail in dry weather" has been distinctly exemplified in Madison this week.
Tuesday was threatening and everyone hoped that the rain so long waited for would come before the close of the day, but there has been no rain yet.

No shelf worn goods but all new and fresh at Thurston's.

Wm. Massey, the barber, was tried before County Judge Martin on Tuesday for carrying a concealed weapon without having first procured license, and was convicted. His attorney, Col.
C. B. Ashley, will appeal the case to a higher court. It seems that Massey drew a pistol on some one at the camp meeting a few nights ago.

Berry Scott, a well known and respected negro of our town, died Sunday night after a long and painful illness.
For years Berry had been a hack driver for the different livery stables and his friends among both races were numerous. His funeral was held Monday afternoon and he was buried with Masonic honors, he being a member of that order.

Attention is called to the advertisement which appears in this paper of F.
V. Farrell. Mr. Farrell is engaged in the well boring business and has all the machinery and appliances necessary to the conduct of such business successfully. If you contemplate having a well bored or driven he is prepared to furnish you estimates for the work and do it in satisfactory manner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Beaseley view with pardonable pride the very excellent record of their son, Waldense, who is a student in the South Kentucky Military College at Hopkinsville. Twice since last September has his class standing won him promotion, the last coming a few days ago when he was named first sergeant of his company. The many friends of the young man here are also proud of his success.

Miss Nettie McCall has presented the Elizabeth Harris Chapter U. D. C., with a child's dress of Confederate homespun.
The material and make of dress is a fine specimen of what was worn thirty-eight years ago in the South. It will be sent to the Confederate Museum in Richmond, Va. It is labelled "In Memory the little daughter of Dr. Parramore, who went away in 1863, while her father was a prisoner of war."

Messrs. W. S. Jordan, L. A. Fraleigh, forded by the Fair now in progress in that city. To-day is the big day at the Fair and a large number of the ladies and gentlemen of the town will go over, among whom will be Misses Eva and Sadie Thomas, Rochelle Cobb, Hoyt Hinely, Frankie Armstrong and others.

The train returning will not leave Valdosta this afternoon until after the last of the races.

Few towns the size of Madison can boast of a really up-to-date hardware store where anything from a needle to a locomotive or a hoe to a mowing machine can be had. But there is such a place in Madison and the business is owned and conducted by W. H. Dial, jr. We direct attention to his large advertisement which appears in this paper and assure our readers that what he has to say therein is as true as gospel and may be confirmed by a simple visit to his place of business.

How People Lose Their Money

BY CONCEALING it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs, and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks, by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives. . . .

How People Save Their Money

BY DEPOSITING it in a good reliable bank.
Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side. . . .
